Chief Guest

Dr. Rajat Kathuria, Director & Chief Executive, ICRIER

Participant

Prof. Kamal Kundra

Brief

Prof. Richard Baldwin, one of the world's leading globalization experts, claims in his book that the inhuman speed of this global transformation threatens to overwhelm our capacity to adapt. When technology enables people from around the world to be a virtual presence in any given office, “Globotics” will disrupt the lives of millions of skilled workers in most countries, including India, much faster than automation, industrialization and globalization disrupted lives in previous centuries.

While the changes are inevitable, his book also offers strategies that humanity can use to adapt to this new world, employing the indispensable skills that no machine can copy creativity and independent thought

Brief

Shri. Anil Khaitan, elaborated the qualities that make a great leader such as agility, visionary, adaptable, humility, honesty, integrity, and good communication. He also said, that the success of the organization depends solely upon the vision of the leader and his/her capability of delegating, empowering, and inspiring his team towards the organizational goal

Key Speakers

- Shri Anil Khaitan Chairman, ASSOCHAM National Council on Start-Ups
- Shri Arun Gupta, CEO & Founder, MoMagic Technologies
- Ms. Eiti Singhal, AGM, Panasonic India
- Shri Kapil Gupta, CEO, OMLogic Consulting
- Shri Sukanta Dey, ex CXO, Uniliver, PepsiCo, AT&T
- Shri Yashasvi Vats, Marketing Communication Head, Microsoft, India

Shri Kovid Chugh, Director, Start-Ups, Grant Thornton

Brief

All speakers spoke about the importance of marketing to make the customer aware and finally loyal towards the brand. They also felt that in the present digital era, one needs to think digital and make use of social media to promote products and brands. The requirements of the customer are changing very fast and therefore leaders need to decide when to introduce new products and services to replace old.

The importance of business consultants was also discussed with a warning that the final decision to employ their services rests on the shoulders of the start-up depending upon their resources.
